Dear Parents/Carers

We would like to invite you to our Reception Class performance which is going to be 'A Miracle in Town'

To comply with Health & Safety regulation, each guest must have a ticket to gain entry into the Hall to watch the performance. Each family will be able to request a total of two tickets for their child(ren)'s performance.

Please complete the slip below and return to school by Thursday 29th November. If you have special family circumstances and require additional tickets, please send a separate letter for consideration by the Senior Leadership Team.

N.B: These performances may be recorded (by school and other parents). If you have any objections to your child being filmed please contact the school office.

Due to the limited space in the hall, pushchairs will not be allowed, however there will be a space allocated for prams in the main entrance should you wish to leave them there.

Yours sincerely

Mrs L Keighley

Head of School
